

meet the team

a rich mix of talent from across the world

It is the calibre and mix of the excellent men and women who work at OryxAlign that determine our success. We choose them most carefully, not just for their technical competence and experience but also for their character, sense of humour, creativity and personality.

We are a happy, supportive community with a clear sense of purpose and a strong team ethic. And we have fun on the journey too.